

Academic year

Massey University operates:

Intake/Semester 1	February to late June
Intake/Semester 2	July to early November
Intake 3	August and September
Intake 4/Summer School	November to February

PhDs and English Language programmes can start at any time during the year. For details see international.massey.ac.nz.

Verification of documents

To verify documents photocopy both sides of each page of the original document and use an official company stamp (in English) including, "This is a true copy of the original", on the front of each page. To complete the verification, documents must be signed and dated by an authorised person, eg, a notary public, a justice of the peace, a solicitor, a commissioner of oaths, an official of the issuing authority or an approved Massey University agent. The signature and company stamp must be an original on the copies provided – the stamp and signature cannot be copied. Documents in languages other than English are to be translated into English by a certified translator and verified in English. Applicants who have had a name change must provide verified evidence of that change, eg, a deed poll or marriage certificate.

Admission criteria

To be admitted into a Massey University programme applicants need to meet both the academic and English language requirements. The criteria listed here is for general admission only and some programmes have additional requirements and/or require a higher level of English language. For details please visit international.massey.ac.nz

ACADEMIC ADMISSION

PhD

Admission to Doctoral study requires a high calibre Masters or Bachelor with Honours degree with demonstrated research skills.

Postgraduate

Admission into a postgraduate programme requires an appropriate undergraduate degree from a recognised tertiary institution.

Graduate Diploma

Admission to a Graduate Diploma requires successful completion of a three year diploma or undergraduate degree from a recognised tertiary institution.

Undergraduate

Successful applicants will have achieved the equivalent to Year 13 in New Zealand (NCEA level 3 University Entrance). Refer to page 3 of this document for a guide to entry requirements by country.

Pre-degree

Successful applicants from outside New Zealand will have achieved the equivalent to successful completion of Year 12 in New Zealand. See page 3 of this document for a guide to entry requirements by country.

CREDIT ASSESSMENT (RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING)

Applicants may request an assessment for recognition of previous tertiary study by ticking the Credit section on the application form. There is no additional fee when the credit is assessed at the same time as the application for admission. Credit applies to undergraduate study only and course outlines must be provided.

3. Higher English language requirements are requested for some programmes

The information in this section applies to international students studying in New Zealand only

Compulsory medical and travel insurance

International students (including group students) are required to provide evidence of appropriate insurance and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand. This insurance must provide cover for pre-existing medical conditions and the costs of any support requirements.

For a list of approved options visit international.massey.ac.nz

Accident insurance

The Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but students will still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website at www.acc.co.nz

Health and disability

Full disclosure of any disability, impairment, long-term injury, or chronic medical conditions is necessary so that the University can assess its ability to support international students during their study in New Zealand.

Eligibility for health services

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If a student receives medical treatment during their visit they will be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on the website at www.moh.govt.nz

Student visas/immigration

To apply for a student visa you will need to present a Confirmation of Place to your nearest Immigration New Zealand office, New Zealand Embassy or High Commission.

Full details of visa and permit requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying, and reporting requirements, are available through the Immigration New Zealand website at www.immigration.govt.nz

Code of practice for the pastoral care of international students

Massey University has agreed to observe and be bound by the Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students. Copies of the Code are available on request from the University or from the NZQA website at www.nzqa.govt.nz

Massey university declaration

I declare that the information given in this form is true and correct, and no information that may have a bearing on my enrolment has been withheld.

I understand and agree that this Enrolment Application will form part of a contract between me and Massey University. The other terms of that contract are set out or referred to in the document entitled 'Student Contract' which can be viewed on the Massey University website. The Contract will be formed when I accept the Offer of Place. Even after I accept any Offer of Place my enrolment contract at Massey University may be subject to conditions being satisfied or waived by Massey University by notice in writing to me. Even after I receive a Confirmation of Enrolment Massey University may still cancel my enrolment as permitted by law or as permitted in the University's agreement with me.

By submitting this Enrolment application I understand that:

- (i) I am solely responsible for ensuring that any Offer of Place I accept is for a programme that I am eligible to study and wish to study,
- (ii) I alone decided to study the programme for which I have applied. I am not relying on any advice from Massey University that a programme is suitable for any purpose unless I have that advice in writing from Massey University.
- (iii) Books, journals and other materials made available to me by Massey University are for my own studies only, and copying or using them for other purposes is an infringement of copyright;
- (iv) Massey University's Policy on Intellectual Property will apply
- (v) I have the right to access the personal information which Massey University holds about me and the right to request the correction of that information;
- (vi) Information about me may be held by, used by and disclosed to the following organisations:

Massey University and its wholly owned subsidiary companies, other tertiary providers with whom Massey University has entered into joint ventures or other contractual arrangements, Massey University's Alumni Association, Students' Associations, Extramural Students' Society and related Trusts, Ministry of Education, Tertiary Education Commission, StudyLink, Inland Revenue Department, Dept of Work and Income, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade and Specialist Education Services, Tribal trusts and scholarship providers, other tertiary institutions that I am transferring to or from, New Zealand Teachers Council and other professional accreditation agencies, other agencies where disclosure is permitted or required by law.
- (vii) My name, date of birth and residency as entered on this enrolment application will be included in the National Student Index, and will be used in an Authorised Information Matching programme with the New Zealand Birth Register. For further information please see: nsi.education.govt.nz
- (viii) Security of personal information about me that is held by Massey University is protected by a personal identification number (PIN) or other unique identifier ('unique identifier') provided to me by Massey University. I confirm that the evidence of identity I have provided to the University belongs to me, I authorise the use of the unique identifier for admission and enrolment purposes, I accept responsibility for all uses of my unique identifier and I agree not to give my unique identifier to other people.

I authorise the use of my personal information (including photos) for purposes related to my studies and for the provision and improvement of services for students of the University.
